ANNOUNCING THE DAY Psalm 84:1-7

L: How lovely is your dwelling place, O LORD of hosts!

C: My soul longs, indeed it faints for the courts of the LORD;

L: my heart and my flesh sing for joy to the living God.

C: Even the sparrow finds a home,
and the swallow a nest for herself,

L: where she may lay her young, at your altars, O LORD of hosts,
my King and my God.

C: Happy are those who live in your house,
ever singing your praise.

L: Happy are those whose strength is in you,

C: in whose heart are the highways to Zion.

L: As they go through the valley of Baca they make it a place of springs;

C: the early rain also covers it with pools.

L: They go from strength to strength;

C: the God of gods will be seen in Zion.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who makes all things new,
whose mercy endures forever. Amen.

Trusting in God's mercy, let us confess our sin.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Holy One, source of our renewal,
we confess that we are wrapped up in sin,
and cannot free ourselves.

We have not practiced your righteousness.

Our hearts have turned away from you.

For the sake of the world you so love,
forgive us,

that we may be reconciled to one another
for the glory of your holy name.

Amen.

Thus says our God: "The former things have come to pass and new things I now declare." God's mercy makes us new.
We are forgiven in the name of † Christ our Savior. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY: Lord of stories, Jesus taught us through stories and the wisdom of the shared word. Teach us through your stories, that we may learn, grow, and love. For the sake of Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING Matthew 13:24-43 He put before them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field; 25 but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away. 26 So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well. 27 And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?' 28 He answered, 'An enemy has done this.' The slaves said to him, 'Then do you want us to go and gather them?' 29 But he replied, 'No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them. 30 Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.'"

31 He put before them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; 32 it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches."

33 He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened."

34 Jesus told the crowds all these things in parables; without a parable he told them nothing. 35 This was to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet: "I will open my mouth to speak in parables; I will proclaim what has been hidden from the foundation of the world."

36 Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field." 37 He answered, "The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; 38 the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, 39 and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. 40 Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. 41 The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, 42 and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 43 Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!

L: Word of God, word of life,

C: Thanks be to God.

Spartan Nash is discontinuing the "Direct Your Dollars" program effective March 1, 2023. As a result there is no longer a need to collect Family Fare Grocery store receipts. The good news is that we just achieved the $150,000.00 goal for receipts and so are eligible for $1000 in rewards. (If you still have receipts, you can give them to Kathy Tilderquist and she will direct them to the Cannon Falls Senior Center.)
